

'Change is the law of life. And those who look only to the past or present are certain to miss the future'. John F Kennedy US President (A Gemini)

June 2010 Overview

If you've been stuck in a rut and hoping that life has some movement, June is certainly going to be a defining month to inspire and shake us free of constraints. Uranus the planet of unexpected change in pioneering Aries brings us out of the blue circumstances that broaden our vision into new and challenging arenas. Being reticent or staying in one's comfort zone won't serve you in the long run; it's time to jump into the unknown and live life a little daringly. Risks implies many connotations from person to person, it may mean public speaking, an adventurous travel journey or tying the knot. The lunar eclipse of June 26 is a watershed moment; decisions need to be made just where one is heading for the rest of the year. For a while instability can be disconcerting especially when the outcome is unknown. Chaos in one's life brings uneasiness but it also allows the opportunity for creativity and growth. Otherwise we may just remain in our safe haven, comfortable yet stifled never quite fulfilling our true potential or ability and watching as others pass us by.

Monthly Stars – June

Aries

Get ready! June initiates exhilarating and challenging changes in motion that set the tone for the rest of the year. You're on an upward learning curve, embarking on experiences that promise new horizons up ahead. From June 11 brilliant ideas are birthed and will come to fruition in 2011 when you will be hitting the big time, until then keep it under wraps and plot and plan wisely. The energy of Mars is currently in your working life, giving you the impetuosity to make some much needed amendments, by all means go in guns blazing to make your mark, but don't get anyone offside with your heated energy and drive. Love sparks fly, flirtation and passions will be ignited especially on the work front. June 15 will bring a time to reinvent your career and become more effective, the lunar eclipse of June 26 well and truly closes the door on the way of life as a new one begins. That long lost confidence will finally be regained; yes you're back in business baby!

Taurus

Changes are pending, you're looking for inspiration to your lifestyle and you will find it if you're resourceful. Innovative visions are created by being opportunistic, seeing a gap in the market and creating a need, your hunches are good so act on it. Unusual ideas and inspiration comes to you in dreams or subconsciously, don't dismiss; all ideas have their embryonic beginnings. Love, creativity and new projects have you fired up with enthusiasm, flirtations and contacts are stimulating, the world holds many possibilities, grab them with both hands and don't deliberate. This month you will be thinking money, looking into the future and seeing ways to be industrious in making plans profitable. Forecast long term; sow the seeds today, by June 11 you've got a financial plan together that will see you bring in the moolah. June 26, the eclipse brings the focus on travel movement and shifts to your environment. Of course doubts and fears may plague you but push these out of your mind you have the karmic forces behind you, so look forward not back.

Gemini

Karma comes back to you, what you have sown in the past starts to bear fruit. Friendships that have been nurtured will be beneficial; good vibes shown to others brings a helping hand in the future. In your home there will be much ado with a flurry of activity, plans take on a momentum of their own, ideas are hatched and visions are unfolding. From June 12 with your sparkling witty repartee you're able to win people over, so use this time to launch yourself the world is waiting. Come June 24 digital ideas, writing and innovative thinking will bring in the opportunities and a chance to really flex your creative skills. The eclipse at the end of the month puts the pressure on joint financial affairs, there may be difficulties in this union, carrying another is fraught with tension. A hiccup in an otherwise fortunate month, so be brave and be bold, remembering that a life half lived is a life lived in fear and really no one would ever call you of all people a coward!

Cancer

It was Einstein who said, "your imagination is your preview of life's coming attraction, and this is the month that gives you glance of your future. Plans have yet to be formulated, set the ground work for tomorrow; you can't rely on other people to be your safety net. Mars is spurring your thinking, giving you the recklessness to put yourself out there regardless of the consequences. Your feistiness although not often seen rears its head, making you aggressive and brash in getting what you desire. Shrewd and skilful you know how to maximise an opportunity more than anyone else. The new moon on June 12 sprouts new ideas, yet in early stages but can burst forth into bigger plan if you use some practical know how. Relationships are affected by the lunar eclipse of June 26. Endings and beginnings are the name of the game, new partnerships crystallise while others come to a final closure. June is really the time to have courage of your convictions, and put your trust in that invisible power call faith that an exciting future awaits you in 2011.

Leo

Journeys of the spiritual and geographical kind are on the horizon; you're looking to open your life and instil some excitement. Through travel, study and looking beyond the realm of your world you gain new insights. With Mars finally out of the picture you can look back not so much with anger but in the knowledge that you were able to harness creative energy for the your betterment. Now you are looking for ways to make your money multiply, you more than anyone have the smarts to do so. New friendships begin, clever individuals motivate you to take stock of your life and create something of value. Sparkling with effervescence in mid June, Venus brings happy positive conditions, love sparks fly and attractions happen under amorous skies. The lunar eclipse affects your career, the time of reckoning has arrived, if you don't make much needed changes the laws of fate may do this for you. So seek to find improved ways of working and living. A famous Gaelic writer once wrote 'I see my path, but I don't know where it leads. Not knowing where I'm going is what inspires me to travel it.

Virgo

Expansive Jupiter brings fortunate changes in the way of family resources; property or joint financial partnerships. This may not be obvious at the time, in fact you may be strapped for cash, but in the long run it will make your life richer and rewarding, a little pain for a lot more to gain. The energy of Mars brings a surge of activity, physical energy is high enabling you to generate work that most would find humanly impossible. Try to get away from it all to decompress and recharge which is needed for the onslaught of new and exciting prospects to come. Asserting yourself and standing your ground you are likely to make an outstanding impression. You will be asked to take over the reins on a large scale task or project which will wield you considerable power, but the responsibilities will be just a great. Energetic drive gives you the chutzpah in creative ventures and attractions of the loving kind, you really won't take no for an answer, persistence does pay off. Towing the line of least resistance won't win you any accolades either, it's really time to step into the spotlight and show everyone what lurks behind a placid demeanour.

Libra

Your persona is going through a metamorphosis, expressing yourself to the world out there is open to reinvention. With the onset of luck and love in your partnership arena an exciting phase is about to begin. New people, propositions, opportunities are now on the table, you realise new journeys are possible and that dreams do actually come to fruition. Risk taking ventures will happen next year, but in the interim you need to put yourself amongst it and do some brazen PRing. Covertly you work on activities behind the scenes, you're waiting for the right moment to launch a plan of attack, and reveal the master plan. Communication connections happen with people globally, travel plans are in early stages. By June 12 new ideas are hatched and your about to embark on a journey that will be of great significance. The lunar eclipse at the end of the month causes dramatic changes on the home front be it a change of location or the way you live. As you are on your own trajectory, and you need to keep moving in order to live the dream. Do what's necessary and possible; there is really no point in looking back into the past.

Scorpio

Finally you're able to make some progress, hard work and persistence does pay off. An improved job situation, better working conditions and an increase in salary gives you the self assurance that has been lacking of late. You may not move up the ranks, but you will achieve by working and gaining the esteem of your superiors, which will ultimately put you in a good position. Actively, you're seeking friendships; you're on the lookout for new contacts and leads that will take you places and advise you what is the best course of action. After some financial juggling and being strapped for cash during the past month, money prosperity finally arrives through insurance payments, joint partnerships and money owing making life a whole lot rosier. The lunar eclipse at the end of the month reflects your interaction and communication skills, going it alone is not advised, others hold the key. You don't have all the answers today but it is people that can open the door to success and once they do the sky's the limit.

Sagittarius

June is a pivotal time to release the tensions that has plagued you for much of the year. Learning to put focus in something you are passionate about takes the intensity out your working life. As you get a sneak preview of what's to come in 2011 you can begin to set the ground work for an inspiring phase. Mars the warrior planet stirs up fiery emotions, your ambitions are aroused but conflicts can happen as a result of your fervour especially with authority figures. This is unfortunate as all the good work done in the past may come undone, so play down conflicts, use a little guile and tact to play the situation to your advantage. If there is a disconnect with business partners now is the time to come clean on misunderstandings. The eclipse at the end of the month rewrites your financial situation, perhaps a property purchase, tax payment or business venture will be destabilizing at the time. However, once this phase is over and July hits you're on your way to build a strong concrete foundation that will withstand the test of time.

Capricorn

The planet of expansion Jupiter and changeable Uranus dominate your home life. Changes in living circumstances such as renovations, flatmate, partner or new child can put life into a state of flux for a short time. As you cast you net further afield, Mars activates the adventurous side in living circumstances especially if you want to live abroad or establish a dream home. Career wise, you're sharp and witty communication skills will be put to good use, now is the time to move forward with gusto rather than letting the past taint an otherwise challenging situation. From June 12 new beginnings occur, a reinvention is order, what has served you in the past may no longer in the future. Venus will be adding the intensity, desires and passions will be running rampant, love is all encompassing but dramatic and you want to be part of it. The lunar eclipse ends a way of life for you, this may be rather difficult to endure but you know that one phase has ended and will never return again, it's onward and upward from here on.

Aquarius

The arrival of lucky Jupiter into your communicative arena brings you confidence. Old outmoded thought patterns come to an end, replaced by fearlessness and a sense of daring. Thinking will be less subject to limitations; you have a 'can do' attitude, if there is a will there is certainly a way. Travel or a journey planned will have a significant effect on your changing your perception of the world. Issues on jointly held finances with your partner may come to some disagreement, understandings that what is someone else's does not automatically give you the right of ownership. Drawing the line and sharing when necessary ensures that you keep your individuality. As Venus moves into your partnership sector it enables you to arrive at decisions in working together to sort out any conflicts. From this love relationships become stronger; circumstances bind you even closer together. By the end of June you will need to take a respite and spend some time alone, sorting out hidden issues. Once you get your head space together you will feel reenergised, free of emotional baggage ready for the next exciting chapter in your life.

Pisces

If you have been struggling financially and saying 'show me the money' well the time has arrived for materialising. Gaining wealth is on the rise, setting yourself up for a salary increase, or sale of a property will ensure 2011 will be abundantly prosperous. You will be initiating relationships and calling the shots, Mars in your partnership sector gives you the self-assurance to be frank and honest if there have been any hidden issues. However over asserting yourself can backfire and cause conflict so you need to tread a little warily with others. Love aspects improve on the work front, attractions are possible with co workers and relationships with superiors improve. Understanding how interoffice politics work you use diplomacy and astuteness to resolve any difficulties that arise. A friendship comes to a closure during the lunar eclipse of June 26. Belonging to a group is all important as you strive to make a name for yourself. As love and luck is on your side this year it won't be long before you have captivated an admiring audience with your unique brand of magnetism and charm.