

March 2010 – Month of Pisces

Erratic conditions and changeable situations of the past five months finally come to end. Mars the planet of drive in backward motion was causing log jams, stalemates and general frustration. Finally from March 10 an unlocking of creative energy and anxieties are released. Projects get the green light and its smooth sailing all the way as we proceed to our goals at lightning speed. Self confidence that has been lacking of late returns giving us the impetuosity to make some bold changes if necessary and to shake us out of the doldrums that we find ourselves in. Pisces is the last sign of the astrological year, so this is the month to get your act together, wrap things and set plans in motion. We may start out the month a little unsure but as we move on we gain some ground and kick into high gear. March may start in a whimper but it certainly goes out with a bang!

'The world is changing very fast. Big will not beat small anymore. It will be the fast beating the slow'. Rupert Murdoch Media Entrepreneur (A Pisces)

Astrostars Monthly Forecast

Aries

Observing and stepping back from the main frame last month has given you clarity. Finally you're able to see the bigger picture and the part you have to play in other people's scenarios. Coming to conclusions you make decisions where or with whom your future lies. Intuitively you know how to make use of your creative assets, ingenious ideas come to you subliminally and you are able to work it to your advantage. Unusual attractions and friendships begin; and you're in your element from March 7 when Venus the planet of beauty hits your sign giving you the star quality to entice an audience. Relationships of the professional and personal are the focus when the moon peaks full on March 29. You may cement a union, make a vow or perhaps you are ready to call it a day and part company. Thought provoking indeed! Once you see the wood from the trees your ready to make some much needed amendments to your life.

Taurus

New friendships begin, no not the friend for ever variety but the creative and unusual come to have an influence in how you operate in life. This may not always make you feel comfortable but you might just learn something about others and maybe about yourself in the process. Mid month a deep spiritual connection forms with another, now you have someone that really understands what you are about. Time spent away from the chaos to recharge your batteries will help you formulate plans, especially in relation to work which has been under erratic conditions of late. Comfortability within the home improves after March; finally you are able to get things done that you put into the too hard basket, having a sanctuary in the midst of the madness will help you find solace. Work life peaks end of the month it will get a little testy but luckily you have Venus on your side to sweeten negotiations so get going and use that charm of yours to make it happen.

Gemini

The time has arrived to get out there and to be seen and heard. Growth and movement will take place in your career this month. Using your charm and knowledgeable skills will enable you to open doors and get noticed by those in the know. Mid month you have the opportunity to completely reinvent yourself professionally, others may be surprised at your chutzpah, but you know your potential, which is vast. Many out of the blue possibilities will present itself this month which may throw you into a spin. You're going to have to decipher what will go the distance and what are merely castles in the air. Friendships look promising at the moment, socially you are on everyone's guest list, and connections with many people will increase your network base. No longer are you content to be a bystander, you really need to step up to the stage and show them what you've got. Taking a risk and promoting yourself will ensure that you are the name on everyone's lips.

Cancer

Expansions of the mental or geographical kind develop this month. Attractions to all things foreign alters your perspective on world views. The lure of distant locations or people of other cultures promises potential for adventure and growth. Global connections puts you on the map and your career is on the up, so don't think small time, think world domination if you want to make your mark. A sore point will come at the end of the month, the full moon on March 29 the home life suffers while your career dominates. Property matters or family issues that have been put on the back burner need to be dealt with immediately should they erupt into a full blown dilemma. You're on a learning curve, balancing your time, planning ahead will put you in good stead for a changing future. Ascertaining information and increasing your skills gives you command over your environment. As they say knowledge is power and soon you will be a force to be reckoned with.

Leo

You have been in a lull for a while, going under the radar is not your style, but a little self introspection helps assesses your desires. Emotional feelings that have lain dormant now come to the fore. Understanding the source of your feelings and channelling it to its advantage helps instigate projects and inject enthusiasm and excitement back into relationships. Mid month a financial bonus or a windfall eases any difficult monetary constraints. In fact money will be lush this year, especially from other sources such a government aid, profits or insurance gains, but use wisely as finances can drain out just as easily. The year takes shape now and there are many tasks that you have set for yourself. Self doubt creeps in especially during full moon time of March 29. But fear not with Mars in your side you have the energy behind you to achieve spectacularly. Yes it's certainly good to be back, you have been ignored for far too long!

Virgo

Finally you have decided to make a commitment on a personal or professional issue, previously feelings were undecided, and if this was the right road to be travelling. Encouraging circumstances and positive feedback from others have given you renewed faith. March 15 is time to seal the deal and make a vow to something or someone you passionately believe in. Venus in your sign will give you the charm and sa voir faire to make the most arduous tasks pleasurable and to smooth any ruffled feathers with another. Unfounded fears for the future will play on mind, relax you have been here before, experience has taught you well. You will hit a financial hot water at the end of the month. Monetary plans are needed if you are to make a gain by the end of the year. By month's end, you come to realise, you know much more than you think and any difficulties and uncertainties were just a bump in the road.

Libra

It's a competitive market out there and a battle at times, but if you want it, you're going to have to fight for it. It seems that somebody always wants what you have worked hard for but accepting that envy and competition is a part of creative life will help deal with your opponents. A drive to succeed not only motivates you but others around you to achieve as well which can only propel you to excel and showcase the unique YOU, that's your point of difference. From March 15, a new way of working and finding equilibrium gives you resurgence. March 29, full moon in Libra is the turning point of the year, love; career and your home life meet at the crossroads. Situations that aren't working call for decision time, your placid nature endures far too much. Have the courage of your conviction, luck shines in your career for much of the year, so whatever path you choose don't worry it will be paved in success and glory.

Scorpio

Love is bloomin' for you now and if not, well it ain't too far off. A sizzling attraction with another comes out like a bolt from the blue. What begins now may be a lighted hearted affair but has the potential to develop into something deeper. Your career will soon be in the spotlight however the last few months you have had to 'suck it in' and endure some tense moments. Keeping your emotions behind a cool facade has given you the maturity and knowledge to handle yourself with assurance for a challenging future. Confidence and energy are renewed and if you want others to take notice now is the time to ensure the spotlight is shining on you. However, even though you may want to reach for the stars, the full moon of March 29 brings you back down to earth. Do you have what it takes to get there? Are you competent? Really no one is the wiser as they say 'fake it until you make it'!

Sagittarius

The roots of your life are in transition, renovation, relocation, buying and selling is the process you're currently experiencing. Deep down you're searching for a stable inner world, but before you get there, the past needs to be faced, clearing out the clutter emotionally and physically makes the load lighter. Travel plans may be road blocked due to practical considerations, a circuitous route is needed to reach your destination. Soon obstructions will subside, getting from A to B won't be such an arduous voyage. Friendships hit a rocky patch end of month, you may be at cross purposes with someone, fate may choose your relations but you choose your friends, so select wisely. As you move away from unstable times, you reach a calmer, serene state. March is the time to begin to live a life you've envisaged. Now you can build a strong edifice that will withstand whatever life tosses at you, while the outside world may be chaotic your inner life will remain secure.

Capricorn

Life seems a little stale, experience and adventure are beckoning. This year you will have many opportunities to change your outmoded way of thinking, your mind is receptive to all that is different. Financial assistance, taxes and insurance seem to have been caught up in red tape. Mid month it begins to unravel, you get to the heart of it and the $'s start to flow. March 29, full moon forces you to reach a critical career juncture. The culmination of years of hard work gives cause to ponder. Taking a complete u turn may seem ludicrous to others but you're way too smart to become entrapped in such idealistic visions. Planning is your forte, you don't just survive on fate alone. However, even the most planned people sometimes need to throw caution to the wind. Soon you come to realise that many of the limitations that restricted you were self imposed, once free from constraints you will start to carve out your own unique niche.

Aquarius

The emphasis this month will be about making life a lot more lucrative. It's time to take a risk and use your hard earned cash to make some gains. Juggling and shifting resources may seem risky at times but rather than hoarding you need to go out and make it happen whether that is through property or business investments. Fortuitous financial conditions flourish for much of the year, but you still need to use that ingenuity and persistence of yours, you won't get rich by resting on your laurels. Even though there are general tensions and difficulties in every day life, warm feelings and good vibes surround you personally and professionally. Relationships woes and doubts begin to iron out, problems can now be faced and dealt with. Discovering that you are loved and admired for all that you contribute is a much richer feeling that adds to your value. So besides counting your cash you can count on your good fortune, you have much to be thankful for.

Pisces

This is your month; you will be thriving and firing on all your cylinders. Understanding your failings of the past now propels your confidence to achieve beyond your limitations. Repressed feelings on the work front finally come to the surface, clearing the way for a more productive way to operate. Doubts and fears give way to a positive future, even though not fully defined you know or feel an encouraging vibe on the horizon. Unifying your fate with another whether through marriage or business relations will bring beneficial conditions of the emotional or monetary kind. Of course the future is not set in stone; there is an element of risk that surrounds your ventures. It is hard to know if you will succeed or fail, but faith in your vision, spurs your imagination, otherwise you might have remained stifled in restrictive circumstances, never quite fulfilling your potential. Everything now really depends on courage; it's time to put your trust in that invisible power called self belief.