

'The Grand essentials of happiness are: something to do, something to love, and something to hope for' Alan K Chalmers, Author & Journalist

November 2010 Overview

November begins with optimistic aspects that will make us feel more alive and mentally challenged. Solutions to problems that may have eluded us now seem obvious and straight forward. The idea of travelling to foreign places will be especially appealing. Making plans for the future and creating organisational systems will serve you well. There is a well founded feeling of optimism which in turn creates the power of positive thinking. Jupiter the planet of luck and hope turns forward bringing fresh opportunities and faith in the future. The full moon in Taurus on November 21 highlights finances and joint funds, a large amount of cash may need to be outlaid. Minor obstacles and hindrances will stop us from reaching the final goal at the end of the month, however if we persevere and not be become daunted we are able to see our vision become a reality and take us into an exciting and challenging 2011.

Monthly Stars – November

Aries

November brings conflicts of property and financial issues especially when aligned with another. Monetary matters have been weighing on your mind. Thankfully by November a resolution is in sight and you can feel encouraged that you have held fast to your principles enabling you to come through with integrity. Friendships and acquaintances that were in a state of misunderstanding now begin to gain clarity. November 21 the full moon highlights your money or lack off, you assess your needs and look towards the future of what is to gain or lose in order become more financially secure. With your Aries focus and determination you enjoy the challenge and meet problems head on, deriving satisfaction in overcoming problems and ensuring that the future is lucrative and abundant.

Taurus

Friendships and partnerships become intertwined, friends become lovers and lovers become friends. From November 6 a union develops that will go the distance and withstand the test of time, for your up keep of this partnership you must ensure loyalty and understanding of another. Career matters for the past five months have been vague and confusing, you were unsure to where to move or how to progress. Thankfully the situation gains clarity and you find a sense of direction through the fog. Venus also moves into your work sector giving you the charm and appeal to make those that you deal with come to your way of thinking. November 21 the full moon is in your sign culminates in decision time on a personal, professional and financial level. There may be many issues to contend with but once you deal with this without losing your cool, you are ready to pave the way for life changing 2011, so get ready!

Gemini

Your career is thrown into a tailspin, possibilities are opening up for you and it is now or never that you need to grab opportunities with both hands. A new career direction will take you down a different path but you know it is time for a change and renewal. November 6, a new health and lifestyle begins, a job is in the offing so it is time to make plans to make a move. November 18, is when the planet of luck is on your side, now is the time to reach for the top. Travel and legalities become clearer as forward movement of planets clear up any misunderstandings. The full moon of November 21 raises doubts about your life which sits at cross roads and where the future will eventually lead you. Venus enters the house of work and health, you're energetic and blooming with confidence, so make hay while the sun stills shine and use the encouraging outlook to make your mark on the world.

Cancer

Opportunities for travel bring in movement after stagnation. Journeys planned with the one you love are joyful with hope for an adventurous future. After being enslaved to your job for a long time, it's time to cut some slack and put yourself first. From November 6 a new romance blossoms or ties become stronger with your partner, and you make plans for a new year with enthusiasm. If you are looking for a change of home from early November you have the opportunity to find something suitable to your lifestyle and taste. Conflicts with work and travel impact your daily routine and put you in a spin, plan methodically and ensure that you are up to date before embarking on an adventure. The full moon of November 21 highlights friendship, and your wishes. Loyalty and sincerity to others guarantees that life will recompose you for past good deeds. Yes the time has come to reap the rewards.

Leo

The home life expands with new energy, financial savings and funds from other resources give you a secure feeling for the future. There is a ways to make money and you of all people are innovative and resourceful in making funds stretch if need be. Early November will begin a renovation and repair to the home and now cashed up you use your money wisely for the betterment of your lifestyle. Creative projects, study and subjects that you can invest your love and passion keep you enthused and busy in the next few months. Career changes are in focus when the moon becomes full on November 21. You're ready to make a move and risk all you have worked hard for something more daring and perhaps even a little risky. However to deny an opportunity and a chance for change would make your existence rather too comfortable and even dull. But a Leo is rarely fearless and without hesitation you go full steam ahead into a new chapter that awaits you and once you take a chance you will certainly be rewarded for your efforts.

Virgo

Relationships discussions and plans for the future take place with positive results, any disconnect with another finds resolution. You are setting the ground rules for a new year ahead and changes are pending. This applies to your professional arena as well, it is time to branch out and make a much needed reinvention of yourself. From November 6 a brand new way to think and operate has begun, you have a courage of your convictions to strike out now with assurance. The work arena that was under a cloud of confusion for the last three months lifts and you can see a clear direction ahead, energy returns after fatigue and being generally under the weather. There is a desire to spend and lavish some attention on yourself after the hard work that you have expended this year. The home life conflicts dramatically with the relationships sector, changing your circumstances and living abode will take some organisation and complete overhaul. The full moon of November 21 highlights journeys and travels up head, you setting the scene today for shifts that will take place tomorrow.

Libra

Success in the business world brings the lush financial conditions; you're negotiating and making a deal that you see you do very well financially in the next year. A job offer, promotion or structural changes in your employment alters your financial situation for the better. November 7, Venus the planet of love re-enters your sign. Strong feelings and emotions may not be expressed at this time. Rather than saying the wrong thing or not being eloquent go with your gut instinct wait until the moment is right and you are more in sync. November 18, a new working life begins, you are ready to set a new status quo and reinvent your working life for the better. November 21 the full moon brings into focus your monies tied up with a financial institution such as bank, insurance or employer. Check the fine print before signing and even when issues go a little haywire and out of kilter keep logical and practical, faith and belief will do the rest.

Scorpio

The month opens up with the potentials of new love and creativity. You are sowing the seeds for a new prospective creative project that has the capability to develop into something innovative. The home life which was under a cloud of confusion begins to lift; soon you will find a safe haven where you can finally begin to feel at home. The full moon emphasises personal and professional relationships, there is a lot to ponder about. As the year draws to a close and you make way for new one, alliances and relationships that have seen their use by date come to a conclusion. The constraints of money puts a damper on your visions of the future, rather than rushing ahead financially plan ahead without the rose coloured glasses. November 29 the spotlight of love and excitement shines on you when Venus planet of love makes an entrance into your sign, look out world your ready to shine with confidence into 2011.

Sagittarius

Changes are making their impact on you, not physically as yet but plans and schemes are ruminating in the subconscious. There is a desire to bust a move, however all in good time, pace yourself, making an impact is all about knowing when to use your intuition and sense of timing. By early November a new plan will birth which will give you the drive to move forward with a specific goal in mind. The fogginess that has plagued you for much of the year will start to lift, you gain some clarity and perspective and can look back and see the pattern and why situations unfolded as they did and the part that you played. Friendships are enlightening and will help you see the light and pave the way forward. November 21 the emphasis will be on the working life, where do you go from here and the financial considerations that are being offered for the future. 2010 has seen you travel down a very arduous road but one you find your true calling and path the future will become very promising indeed.

Capricorn

Friendships and partnerships are now opening the door to a new way of thinking. Changes to the dynamics of relationships with others in turn causes you to reassess your situation and what improvements and amendments you need to make in your life. From November 6 a new friendships begins which will be instrumental in altering your path and direction. Money matters that have been in a confusing holding pattern for a while begins to shift. Finances that have been unsustainable in the past are within your grasp; finally you can start making plans. Venus the planet of love enters your career sector and shines a glowing light over you. Your self confidence is amped up; you take to the spotlight with self assurance. A relationship with a VIP person has potential to be much more than just professional, amorous feelings and excitement for the future keeps you motivated. The full moon on the November 21 intensifies these feelings and you make a commitment to another with hope that the future is best travelled with others than alone.

Aquarius

You make decisions about your career, you want to make a move but financial considerations are in contention. Perhaps waiting a little longer until you feel more secure is your best bet, time spent assessing your needs and ensuring you have covered all bases personally and professional will steer you forward into the future. November 6 brings a job offer to the table or a promotion, being put forward and in contention builds your confidence. You ponder and move stealthy into the future but initially considering your options and choices. The last 6 months have put you in a confusing state, so much has happened and there has been no time to assimilate and assess your emotions. From November you finally see the wood from the trees and are able to see the pattern and understand why things happened the way they did. Venus brings the desire to travel and get away from it all. The full moon of November 21 causes you to reassess your living conditions, issues at home will need to be addressed, and work can wait another day until you've dealt with drama.

Pisces

You're ready to embark on a life changing journey. Plans for a holiday and adventures take a momentum of their own. Once you set sail and venture out of your comfort zone life may never be the same. November 6 is the time to get away from it all and spend some time pondering about the future. Your mind has been submerged in a cloudy daze, unsure what to do you have been a state of limbo. Venus in the joint financial partnership arena makes negotiations and talking business a little sweeter. Your charm is able to win people over and seal the financial deal. Luck will be on your side and fortuitous circumstances will be there for the taking should you see an opportunity you need to capitalise on the moment. The full moon will be brewing some doubts especially of a financial nature and you need to ensure that your over confident nature may not let something important fall through the cracks. By the end of the month love, adventure and journey will ensure that November will be a life changing and memorable month indeed!