

Definition of Karma: What you sow today, you will reap in the future.

'Thoughts become words, words become actions, actions become habits, habits become your character, character becomes your destiny' Gandhi Political & Spiritual leader

October 2010 Overview

October begins with a feeling that new chapter is about to dawn for all of us. Not immediately, there is still a way to travel, but plans are in gestation away from prying eyes as we plot and plan are next move. The new moon in Libra the sign of partnerships is all about forming new business and personal relations. New alliances are born and ties become stronger with another that will withstand the test of time over the years. October 22 culminates with a second full moon in the powerful fire sign of Aries; the first one took place in September. Once again relationships are in the spotlight and any issues that were not dealt with last month will come back to a final closure. Issues with authority, power and government are where sensitive concerns may lie. But Aries been a courageous sign, we won't really back down until we state our case, sometimes this may not be so pleasant but finally we can say what we feel with brutal honesty. By the end of the month Mars in the adventurous sign of Sagittarius beckons us for towards wider horizons and dreams of faraway places far removed from where we find ourselves.

Monthly Stars – October

Aries

Your financial coffers are booming; money from other sources such as home sale, insurance claim, inheritance or other factors in conjunction with another brings in the big bucks. Although getting your hands on funds may be a little difficult due to the Venus backward motion. The new moon in Libra on October 7 begins a new partnership be it business or of a personal nature. If there has been any animosity or tension in relationships this is a time of healing, forgiveness and starting over with a new way forward. The full moon on October 22 once again highlights relationships of the most intense kind, feelings are not light weight, and it's all or nothing. Give some practicality and logic to the situation, problem solve and ensure any wrongs have been righted. Closure takes place end of the month. You're ready to get away from it all, travel to a faraway place and lose yourself in exotic cultures of other lands.

Taurus

Love and energy activate your partnerships, what you want you are going to get. With a little self promotion and charm you seize the situation nicely to your advantage. However over pushiness won't win you friends so you need to have balance and astuteness. October 7 will bring a job offer to the table, credentials and the ability shine through stress and difficulties win over the competitors. Practicality and a no nonsense attitude seal the deal; your communication is articulate which will help you in negotiations. The full moon of October 22 will raise doubts especially in relation to your career and you will be feeling slightly out of your ambitious depth. Luckily friends will help ease your anxiousness, especially powerful ones and will be backing you all the way. Mars at the end of the month brings the action in negotiations, legal or financial issues now move confidently and assuredly to a final conclusion.

Gemini

Positive vibes in the work arena will bring encouraging results; you push your point with charm and a little persuasion. Others are succumbed to your magnetism and expertise especially in the business world. October 7 brings a new a new love affair or creative life that will be exciting and at times challenging but over time enduring. Good communication skills ensure that your relationships will be built on honesty and trust. However be aware that you're not winning everyone over, accolades and victory bring jealousy and envy which is part of competitive life. October 22 the full moon highlights your friendships, emotions are intense. One union comes to an end, and another begins with a powerful strong and confident individual. October 24 brings positive work vibes, your star is on the rise, feel confident in your ability that you deserve it and are destined for great things. By the end of the month Mars the planet of action activates your partnerships you are feisty, proactive and raring to go in new ventures and relationships. Exciting times are up ahead.

Cancer

Love and new relationships are activated with gentle influence and charisma. Motivated by matters of the heart, you to take action in relationships and pursue your ardent object of affection with eagerness and passion. The home life is up for renewal, renovation, buying or selling is all taking place from October 7. You're looking for a change of scenery and by altering your environment life transforms for the better. The full moon of October 22 once again highlights your career sector; you may be catapulted to the public eye that can make you feel a little out of sorts. You prefer to move tenaciously into the spotlight, it's not your style to blow your own trumpet. New creative projects or relationships are giving you the impetuous to now take a holiday or attend study to make your life much fuller. By the end of the month energetic Mars activates your working life, you are looking for something new, time to take a leap of faith when opportunity knocks. Once you do there is no turning back.

Leo

A house extension or renovation takes place quickly and rapidly you don't want to waste time changing your living conditions, you're ready to start living as soon as possible. From October 7 your social life picks up, your dealings with people will be sociable and pleasant. General day to day living becomes a breeze and your thinking and demeanour takes on a glow of assurance. Travel plans crystallize, and a trip or relocation brings much excitement and nervousness. There may be a few arguments and tense feelings in relation to your holiday. Lack of time in your day will make you move in haste forgetting important details. Stressing won't make the situation any better, keep calm and cross tasks off your list systematically. By the end of the month you will be proactive in relationships, you make the first move in the hope there may be more to experience and enjoy. Creative projects get the green light, now is the time to express your talents and release that artistic energy. After all someone like you is born for the centre stage so your time has arrived to glow in the spotlight.

Virgo

Your way of thinking and believing is going through a transformation, it is time to get a little savvy and smart after all you're no one's fool. Charm coupled with directive authority helps you achieve your aims in no uncertain terms. October 7, the finances are definitely looking a little rosier and you will be glad you stuck to being vigilant in your financial dealings. Hard work and practical know how will help establish a pay rise or bonus that you have been hoping for. Finally some well deserved compensation for effort made, recognition appears from your superiors. The time is astrologically ripe to apply for a loan, sort out your taxes and other financial endeavours. The full moon on October 22 helps you seal the deal but not without some negotiation and you sticking to your guns. A positive confident attitude will help you achieve in business decisions. By month's end you are raring to go, ready to find a new home and to begin to live the life you have been dreaming about.

Libra

Early October, sees your world opening up with confidence, you're able to make a positive financial deal on a purchase of a home or new job. At the negotiating table you win with diplomacy, charm and tact, even your staunchest critics play ball. The new moon in Libra on October 7 births a new way to live and view the world. By beginning again your energy is revitalised and motivated. You tackle projects with enthusiasm. However don't shoot yourself in the foot with your over spending, play it wisely and ensure you have put away enough for tomorrow. You will be communicating for most of October; there will be much discussion about future plans and projects. Tackling issues practically and systematically keeps you disciplined and focused. The full moon at the end of the month highlights your relationships with people, one comes to an end and a new one begins with much promise and hope for the future. Time to shed the old and make way for a new world and way of living.

Scorpio

October brings out an attraction to another; you will be aggressive yet charming in seeking out love and romance in partnerships. With your dynamic looks and vivaciousness you will work hard to win the approval and admiration of others. From early October your mindset starts to change, you look at new ways to do things and how to approach life in a composed manner. You know you can no longer operate under duress, running from one drama to another. Eliminate the problems and trigger points in your life so next year you will be sailing on calmer waters. The full moon of October 22 highlights again the work arena, you desire much more and this time will have the audaciousness to step into a new arena even if you know it may be slightly out of your depth. Mars the planet of action moves into your money house giving you the desire to make financial moves and grow your funds. You're determined more than ever to make your mark and increase your value in the world and why not, you certainly have the chutzpah to do it!

Sagittarius

Mars the planet of energy is giving you the impetuosity to make a courageous step very soon, you are formulating your plans and working behind the scenes to ensure the future is ready for you. New friends and partnerships will assist you into a bold new world. From early October new promising partnerships are formed that will be open doors on a personal and professional level. Conversations and discussion will lead to a more permanent relation but initially you need to make a deal and come to the negotiation table with a plan or an idea. The full moon of October 22 will question your creative ability and if you have it in you to go the distance and reach new heights. Yes, you could do, you are a pioneer who ventures into new frontiers. And with Mars the planet of action entering your sign on October 27, you have the stamina,chutzpah and confidence to go the distance and travel very far indeed.

Capricorn

Networking and making moves to reach out to people has enabled you to gain power and weight in your profession. Contacts are beneficial to your future and assist in making you reach the top. Mid October your career is destined for great things, you are making a name for yourself and you now have reputation to make it successfully without any hindrances. Practicality and commonsense keeps you from losing yourself in the headiness of reaching achievement and recognition. You are gracious and have a sense of responsibility to the task at hand. The full moon of October 22 highlights the home again, it may be time to look for a new home base and make some amendments to your living condition. Mars activates your thinking, you are ready to make some much needed changes and now have the astrological forces to do so. Time to change your mind set, there is a new you emerging so get your thoughts into gear and the rest will follow.

Aquarius

Your career continues to shine and glow; you have the strength of character and the charm of an angel to win anyone over. Business associates are succumbed to your ideas through your likeability and dynamic know how. Career plans or an education begin now to help build your name and reputation for the future. Be careful your charisma may not win everyone over so tread warily to begin with until people trust and know you before you make your requests known. You may be connecting with people globally and making your mark on the world. A new position brings power and status; you are learning every day and becoming a force to be reckoned with. Energetic Mars activates your friendship sector, people will come to you way of thinking eventually. The full moon on October 22 shines confidence for you, your assertiveness wins admirers but don't over push to make up for any inadequacies, you are after all the most congenial and pleasing sign of astrology.

Pisces

Love and energy is activated into a creative project or overseas connection. Connections globally, overseas business transactions, a creative venture or perhaps you looking to move locations globally will keep you motivated and constantly in motion. Financial joint ventures bring promise, assets connected with another yield wealth and investment on return. The full moon of October 22 highlights your use of resources; if you have been wise you will gain if poorly managed you may need to pay for your access in the months to come. Mars the planet of action enters your career and status sector your enthused more than ever to make your mark. You have only a few more months before the planet of luck moves on from your sign, the time is ripe to bust a move and show and show the world just how far you have travelled over the years.