

'To be a star, you must shine your own light, follow your own path, and don't worry about the darkness, for that is when the stars shine brightest' Anonymous

September 2010 Overview

Mercury the planet of communication continues to move at a slow pace when in backward motion. Connecting with people, getting the green light on project or proposal may take longer than anticipated. Phone lines shut down, emails may not reach the intended recipient and life may not seem so certain at this time. However it's not all doom and gloom, sometimes putting on the brakes is a not altogether bad thing. We have time to ponder and review all that has transpired over the past couple of months. Taking time on a project, purchase or new job gives us instance to reassess rather than jumping frantically without examining all the facts and then finding ourselves in a dilemma. Once we have forward motion mid month we can move to our intended goal free from obstacles and confusions. Life is not always about moving full steam ahead, backward motion of planets is there for us to reflect and pause for just a short time and ensure we have all the information and our ready to move on armed with a clearer understanding of what the future expects of us.

Monthly Stars – September

Aries

Abundant Venus brings luck in resources, property and joint financial links with another. Money will be flourishing and you will be feeling a lot more self assured. The new moon on September 8 in your work and health brings a new way to balance your lifestyle. After tension, health issues and sleepless nights, gaining some peace of mind will be a welcome relief. Take some time out away from the maddening crowd; the world will continue to revolve without you for a while. Mid month work concerns become clearer, it all starts to fall into place and finally you make it through a backlog. September 23 a full moon in your sign shines the spotlight on your personal and professional life, its cause to stop and think but sometimes you need it as life has been all encompassing. End of the month you will need to take a very practical view of your personal and intimate relationships, strong unions can now be built that will withstand the negativities of the past.

Taurus

Venus in your partnership sign from September 8 brings luck and love in all unions. Business relations and negotiations run smoothly, your demeanour and credentials charms your contacts giving you the upper hand. Pleasurable and sociable activities are increased; nothing like feeling wanted and needed to make your confidence grow. Creative projects begin with flourish and the promise of exciting things to happen in the future. New friendships are about to open doors and change destiny, be open to who comes into your life now. Chance meetings occur on September 18 to swing destiny favourably towards you. The full moon of September 23 bring in fears and worries, keep calm, keep rational and get your practical Taurus head on before you lose it to emotional feelings. Keeping down to earth is necessary especially in a work related arena. Move one step at time and cross things off your list one by one, organisation and planning is your way out of the excitement and emotions that surround you.

Gemini

Venus the love planet enters the work arena giving you a much needed glow and confidence. If selling an idea, being interviewed or have your eye on someone in the office, the astro powers are behind you to make it happen. If there has been confusion in the home life, past issues begin to clear and life regains some clarity. Jupiter the planet of luck shines on your profession, your career zooms forward with confidence; this is the time to set your ambitions high, very high. Hard work and good deeds done in the past bring good karma paving your future. Mars also enters your career sector from September 14 giving you the fire and desire to be proactive in going for what you want. September 18 brings positive vibes and out of the blue opportunities, now is the time to act and not be reticent. The full moon of September 23 highlights your friendships and who really are your true friends and those who are about see the exit door.

Cancer

Venus the love planet puts the excitement back into your love life. A new romance or creative projects begins at this time with much excitement and promise of more to come. New ways of thinking and believing begin on October 7; you have a changed mindset, past changes have led you to where you are today. You are now determined to cast your net further afield rather than being shackled to this way of living and working. Jupiter in your travel zone on the September 10 gives you the impetuosity to travel and take a long journey to broaden your horizons. An out of the blue situation pushes you to take a trip sooner rather than later. Communication confusion ends on September 12, finally you make contact and projects and plans get the green light. Mars activates your love life bringing enthusiasm; you are feverous and passionate with new ideas and concepts. The full moon on April 23 highlights your career, situations come to ahead and you feel very soon it may be time to move on.

Leo

The home life gets change of scenery, if you are looking to do a refurbishment or spruce up the home September is the time to have a spring clean and instigate some much needed renovations. September 12 is when money finally starts to flow more lucratively, if there has been a stop or blockages to access funds or get a refund, the situation eases and life becomes a lot more fluid. There could even be windfall or extra cash coming your way. The possibility to make financial gains from now until January next year keeps you hopeful through the financial instability you are currently experiencing. September 18 brings unexpected gain through investments and profits, the wheel of fortune, turns your way. The full moon of September 23 highlights travel to distance lands, there is desire to expand your world, take a holiday and enjoy a new experience. You've worked hard to for much of the year to make life more comfortable, now it's time to enjoy yourself and leave money making for another rainy day.

Virgo

Your social life is glowing, you're in demand and everyone wants you on their guest list. Dealings with people will be pleasant and light, you discover there is much to be thankful for. From the early September you will be recharged to make changes, maybe you're ready for a new position within your company or its time to take a positive risk and take a bold step. Life may have got a bit swamped with too much paperwork but from mid September burdens lift. In fact you now have the dynamism to be a little feisty, you're over being passive the time has come to say what's on your mind. New relationships happen unexpectedly, there is something fated about this encounter or meeting. The full moon of September 23 highlights your financial ties and dependency on other sources. You need to stand on your own two feet you cannot rely on people to always be there. It's time to get an independent and release that self assurance within you.

Libra

Money is looking very flush; the planet of love is shining her amorous qualities and giving you the urge to spend lavishly. You want to go all out as for too long you have gone without, careful though you will pay for your financial sins in the future. By mid September there may be the possibility of a new working life, an indication that more is to happen, by January 2011 all will be revealed and begin to fall into place. Confusions that have plagued you start to clear, the fog lifts and you gain some clarity and positivity. September 18 watch out for out of the blue possibilities on the job front, be ready to grab this chance with both hands as it may never swing by again. September 23 shines the spotlight on you relationships, they are delicate and fiery now so tread warily. By end of the month you have got your plans together you're thinking clearly and logically about the future, pie in the sky ideas won't cut it unless you have practical backing to make your visions a reality.

Scorpio

Get ready! With Venus spending an unusually long time in your sign for the next few months you will be radiating with confidence and oozing style. Friendships that begin now are positive and promising leading to much more in the future. Crossed wires of communication initially, create unsure unstable feelings. But soon the path to love will be illuminated and from this will spring an understanding and assurance of another. Mars the planet of action gives you the impetuous to make some bold and courage's moves especially in conjunction to matters of the heart. Gentle persuasion done with charm helps you get what you want in no uncertain terms, when you desire something or someone there ain't no stopping you! Creative projects and new ventures catch you off guard; you rise to the challenge quickly taking the opportunity to highlight your talent and attributes. The full moon on September 23 puts the focus on work, you make begin to make a think practically about the future, there will be much to ponder on the months ahead so take your time in arriving at a decision.

Sagittarius

After what has transpired in the last six months it is time to take a much needed break and contemplate your next stage in life. A little respite away from the craziness will give you an opportunity to de-clutter and the clearness to think logically and practically. On September 8 you have an opportunity to begin a new career life, it's been a roller coaster ride but you need to bow to fate that a new chapter now is about to begin in a new direction. However you're not ready to make a move, keep your plans and desires under wraps until the time is ready to make your ascent up the ladder. The home life is expansive and positive there may be relocation, change of residence or a birth of a child to change the dynamics and status quo. An opportunity to work from home, develop your skills within the home life or work on a freelance basis will give you complete autonomy in what you have always dreamt about. Rocky times ahead but out of difficult new creative visions are born with much hope and promise for the future.

Capricorn

Deep friendship and bonds are now forming with another; you're not one to take relationships lightly. Strong connections and intense feelings will be impactful in your life at the moment. Travel, journeys and new adventures are in the pipeline, you are ready to take flight of fancy and explore the world with an open your mind. Plans to study and learn something new will open the door to success and a new professional life. Life for you is changing dramatically, there are many twists and turns of events up ahead that is about to lead you into a new path and journey. Currently you're networking like crazy, making deals here there and everywhere. Energy is put into friendships you are pushy you want to make an impact with those you come into contact with. Genius ideas and out of the blue concepts take shape, you receive inspiration from the cosmos and are able to make visions tangible. September 23 the full moon highlights the home and family, tension may be rife but once you clear the air you can move forward with power and confidence that the future is taking you into unknown unexplored territories.

Aquarius

Venus in your career and status makes you shine and glow, your star is on the ascendancy and you have all the qualifications to make it to the top job. Activated by fiery Mars as well, you are on a mission to achieve and gain some control in your working life. Money starts to roll in through increase in a pay rise, bonus or other funds to make you feel assured about your financial future. Luck has a way of recompense you for the hard work done, life is not always about giving, sometimes good luck and bounty can cross your path. Partnership confusion and issues now start to clear; you have some clarification where you stand with another. The full moon highlights your thinking and self-belief, you may be feeling drained, it is hard to muster confidence when feel a little low and under the weather. Time spent away to sort of feelings will help you recharge your stamina. By late September you will be looking to the future and making plans for a relocation or education that will continue to develop your abilities and ascend your career.

Pisces

Travelling for love or a new creative project fills you with renewed enthusiasm. You're ready to sail and embark on the journey of love. A new relationship has the signs and potential to blossom into something more. Luck and love comes back into your life after an absence, you are ever hopeful that dreams and plans can now be fulfilled and may do so without much effort from yourself. Communications confusions eases mid month, if you were trying to get in touch with someone, finally blocked lines clear and you make contact. Out of the blue opportunities enter your life that take you by surprise, act on these impulses they are good instincts and portent to something more to be developed. The full moon shines on your wealth and worth in the in the market. It may be a case to stop and ponder how you can raise your stakes and be of value to yourself and those that are banking on you. Having a practicality to handle your resources gives you the ability to double your wealth and stay grounded when your profits and worth is on the rise.